1. The Higher Party School of the Central Committee of the Yugoslav Communist Party is located in the former "King Alexander" School in Belgrade. Its function is the Party education of the leading personalities of the Communist Party and comprises several sections. One section, known as the "School for the Education of Agents", has as its principal task, the training of a cadre for the Yugoslav Intelligence Service, and consists of the following sub-sections:
  - a. Offensive Espionage
  - b. Counter Espionage
  - c. Internal Security
2. Offensive Espionage This sub-section selects and trains agents for offensive intelligence in foreign countries. The duration of the course of instruction is three years, but during the training period the best students are frequently sent on trial missions abroad. Meticulous care is exercised in the recruitment of individual agents, who, in addition to learning the language and various dialects of the country in which they are to operate, must also have the requisite physical characteristics. The following are examples:
  - a. A certain Captain "ACO" or "ACA", who has been trained for operations in Italy, speaks perfect Italian with a Fiume accent and gesticulates when talking. He is about 5' 6" tall; has broad forehead, dark eyes and wavy black hair. Subject is about 30 years of age, a native of Bosnia, and a member of the Communist Party.
  - b. A certain "Lieutenant ILIJA", recruited for work in England, speaks perfect English, including cockney. He is about 6' 1" tall, thin; has blond hair and blue eyes.
3. Counter Espionage This sub-section trains agents for the following categories:
  - a. Agents for Military UDB
  - b. Agents for Civilian UDB
  - c. Agents for KNOJ and the Militia
